

Sinclair Broadcasting is using the public airwaves free of charge in exchange for serving the public interest. Their recent decision to preempt regular programming in order to air a partisan documentary right before an election is outrageous and their license should be pulled. We need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Thank you. Julie Wiskind